The Regency Period (1811- 1820)

Fill in the blanks with the right words

architecture	fashion	insane	ladder	married	regent	security

The Regency Period was named after George IV who became Prince _____ in 1811.

This means that he governed instead of his father because it was thought that his father, King George III, had gone _____.

Prince Regent loved _____, literature and _____.

In the Regency Period the only goal in a woman's life was to get _____.

Marriage was very important because it gave them financial _____ and they could also climb up the social _____.

Social classes:

Draw lines to match the social class with the picture

working class
upper class middle class

LIVEWORKSHEETS