Socialising

1. Join the names of the events with the correct meaning

A reception	is a visit to another person's home to spend a night there.
A graduation party	is a meeting where people discuss or work on a particular subject.
A workshop	is a formal party to celebrate an important event.
A sleepover	is a celebration of a student's completion of a course of study at school, college, or university.
A festival	is an organized series of concerts, films, and other events held annually in the same place.

2. Complete the sentences with the words from the previous exercise

1. The bride asked me to give a speech at the _____ .
2. He showed his diploma to us at the _____ .
3. She organized a _____ for gardeners to discuss different methods of planting roses.
4. More than a thousand people showed up at the local indie music _____ .
5. The girls decided to organize a _____ watch their favourite movies.

sleepover
graduation party festival workshop wedding reception

3. Complete the sentences with the given words

1. His _____ in the conversation made everyone feel awkward.
2. Carrie wanted to _____ in the conversation and make everyone feel comfortable.
3. Despite living too far from each other, they were a _____ friend group.
4. The teacher asked us to _____ on younger students.
5. You sometimes need to _____ in the person's shoes to understand them.
6. This part is your chance to get to know new people and _____ .
7. We feel we overstayed our _____ since our host is constantly looking at the clock.
8. That's sad that you can't _____ between being polite and someone who's really interested in your stories
9. He _____ to discuss our future project.
10. He decided to _____ her sister's house on his way to work.

mingle
put yourself drop by slip-up asked me over keep an eye
tell the diference break the ice
welcome close-knit

LIVEWORKSHEETS