Nickname: _____ No.: _____ Class: _____

Activity 1: Match the word to its definition.

1. criticise _____	A. being treated fairly and having the same rights and opportunities as others
2. equality _____	B. including all people and not excluding any group or individual, especially those who are often left out
3. inclusive _____	C. to point out the faults or mistakes in someone or something, often with the intention of offering improvement suggestions

Activity 2: Explain in your own words what the following words mean.

1. Feedback: _____
_____
2. Disagreement: _____
_____
3. Community: _____
_____

Activity 3: Complete the following text with the words below.

feedback	disagreement	community
inclusive	equality

In a strong and supportive _____, it is important that all members respect each other and work towards _____. While _____ may arise when people share different opinions, it can often lead to better understanding if handled respectfully. Constructive _____ should be given with care so that every person feels valued. An _____ environment ensures that all individuals feel welcome and appreciated.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Activity 4: Circle the correct answer.

1. In our class, every / both student is encouraged to share their ideas.
2. You can choose either / neither tea or coffee, it's up to you!
3. The two friends always help both / each other with their homework.
4. Most / All of the feedback we received was positive, but there's still room for improvement.
5. There is no / some reason to criticise someone without understanding their point of view first.
6. This community welcomes each / all people regardless of their background or beliefs.
7. In an inclusive environment, people respect one another / neither and work together towards equality.
8. I couldn't decide between the two options because I liked both / every of them equally!

Activity 5: Fill in the gaps with the words below.

all	every	either... or...	neither
one another	both	no	each other

1. You can choose _____ to volunteer at the shelter _____ help organise the charity event.
2. The participants in the workshop shared ideas with _____ to come up with creative solutions.
3. There is _____ reason to criticise someone without offering constructive feedback.
4. In a diverse and inclusive workplace, employees should respect _____ and work together towards equality.
5. The disagreement was so intense that _____ side wanted to listen to the other's perspective.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. I couldn't decide between the two proposals because _____ of them had great potential!
7. This organisation welcomes _____ individuals who want to contribute to building a stronger community.
8. _____ student in the class was asked to share their opinion about equality.

Activity 6: Answer the following questions in your own words.

1. Have you ever been part of a disagreement that led to positive change? What did you learn from it?

   _____

   _____

2. Why is feedback important in building a strong community? How can using words like 'all', 'most' or 'everyone' make feedback more inclusive and helpful?

   _____

   _____

3. How can we give criticism nicely? What words or phrases should we use?

   _____

   _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS