Perfect & Perfect Progressive Tenses

Section 1: Complete the sentences

Use the correct form of the verb in parentheses.

1. She _____ (finish) her homework already.
2. They _____ (study) English for five years.
3. I _____ (wait) for the bus since 7 a.m.
4. We _____ (see) that movie before.
5. He _____ (work) at the company since January.
6. By the time we arrived, the class _____ (start).

Section 2: Choose the best option

Select the correct sentence:

1. a) I have lived here for ten years.

b) I am living here for ten years.

2. a) She has been cooking all morning.

b) She has cooked all morning.

3. a) They had finished the test before the bell rang.

b) They had been finishing the test before the bell rang.

4. a) We have been knowing each other for years.

b) We have known each other for years.

Section 3: Rewrite the sentences

Rewrite each sentence using the perfect progressive tense.

1. She started studying at 6 p.m. and is still studying.
2. → She _____.
3. They started working on the project last week and are still working on it.
4. → They _____.
5. I began waiting for you an hour ago and I am still waiting.
6. → I _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS