

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

ANGLES

Hey LEADers! Let's watch this video to learn about angles:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xzAGoErwAyg>

After you are done watching, try this worksheet!

Fill in the blanks with the correct words from the Word Bank (on the next page):

An angle is the _____ between two straight lines that start at the same point.

There are _____ lines in an angle.

The straight lines of an angle are called _____.

The point where both lines meet is called the _____.

We measure angles in _____.

Degrees tell us how _____ each angle is.

_____ angles are those angles that measure less than ninety degrees ($< 90^\circ$).

_____ angles are those angles that measure ninety degrees ($= 90^\circ$).

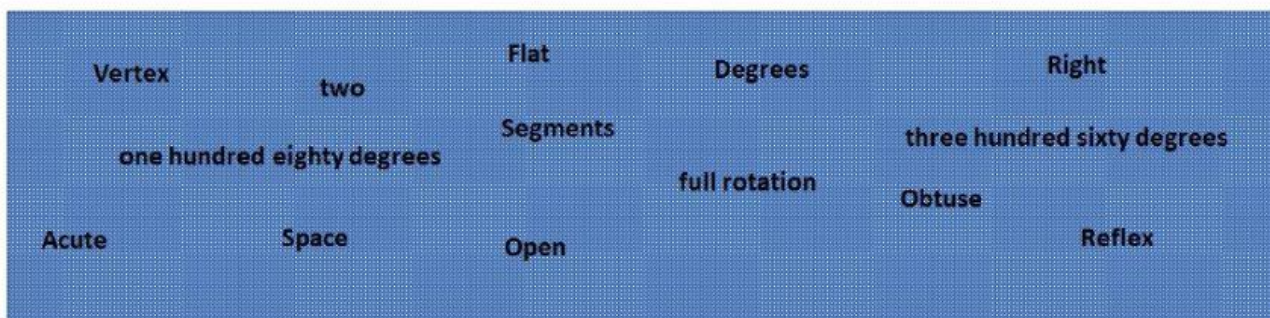

_____ angles are those angles that measure more than ninety degrees ($> 90^\circ$) but less than one hundred eighty degrees ($< 180^\circ$).

_____ angles are those angles that measure exactly _____ ($= 180^\circ$).

_____ angles measure more than one hundred eighty degrees ($> 180^\circ$) and less than _____ ($< 360^\circ$).

A _____ angle measures exactly three hundred sixty degrees ($= 360^\circ$).

There are _____ kinds of angles.

Label the angles below with the correct word:

