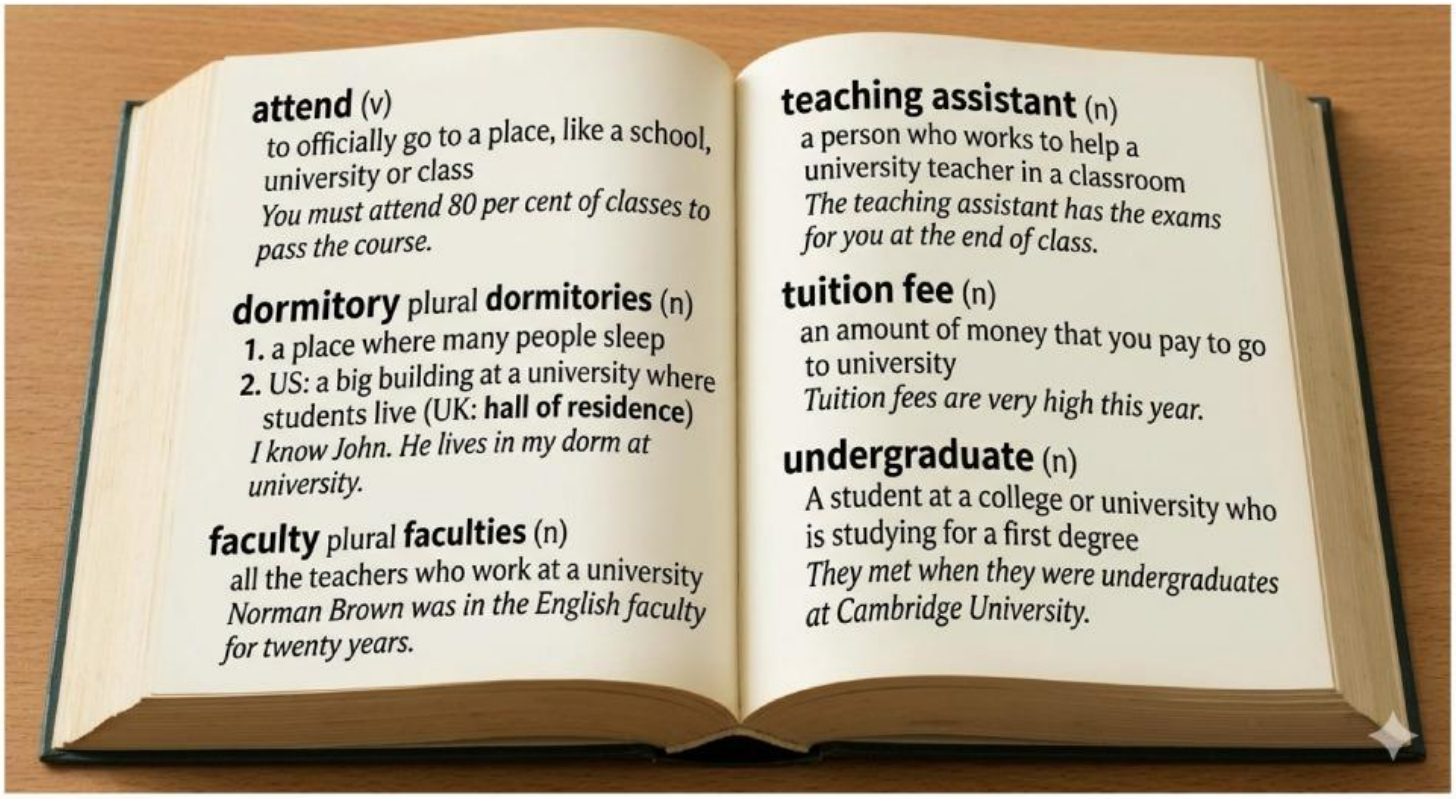
READING COMPREHENSION

Click here to do the preparation task

Read the dictionary definitions and answer the questions



attend (v)
to officially go to a place, like a school, university or class
You must attend 80 per cent of classes to pass the course.

dormitory plural dormitories (n)
1. a place where many people sleep
2. US: a big building at a university where students live (UK: hall of residence)
I know John. He lives in my dorm at university.

faculty plural faculties (n)
all the teachers who work at a university Norman Brown was in the English faculty for twenty years.

teaching assistant (n)
a person who works to help a university teacher in a classroom
The teaching assistant has the exams for you at the end of class.

tuition fee (n)
an amount of money that you pay to go to university Tuition fees are very high this year.

undergraduate (n)
A student at a college or university who is studying for a first degree
They met when they were undergraduates at Cambridge University.

Tasks

Task 1

Are the sentences true or false?

	Answer
1. (n) means the word is an adjective.	True	False
2. The words in the dictionary are in alphabetical order.	True	False
3. For each word there is an example.	True	False
4. Two words in the list change their spelling for the plural.	True	False
5. The dictionary does not tell you if a word has a different meaning in the United Kingdom and the United States.	True	False
6. There are two verbs in the list.	True	False

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Task 2

Complete the sentences with the words.

faculty	undergraduate	attend
teaching assistant	tuition fee	dormitory

1. It's a small ..... – we only have twelve teachers.
2. Students ..... classes from Monday to Friday.
3. I'm an ..... in my first year at university.
4. There are two students in every room in the ..... .
5. Malek works as a ..... at Oxford University.
6. The ..... is £30,000 for foreign students.

LIVEWORKSHEETS