Reading Comprehension – Superstitions (2.5 points) Read the text carefully and write True or False

Hi, I'm Rebecca. I'm a girl who strongly believes in superstitions. I think they're real and can change things. Every morning, I wear my lucky talisman carefully. When I have it on, I feel safe.

Once, I found a ladybug in the park. It was so amazing! I thought it would bring me lots of luck. Whenever I spill salt, I quickly throw a bit over my left shoulder. It's believed to ward off bad luck. I forgot to do it once, and that day, I tripped and fell clumsily in the hallway at school. I felt so clumsy!

On Friday, the 13th, I always stay extra careful. I walk slowly, checking every step, ensuring nothing bad happens. Last Friday, the 13th, I avoided a big black cat just in time. If I had stepped in it, who knows what would've happened? I strongly believe in these things. They make me feel secure, like I have a little magic protecting me.
