Present Perfect: Knowledge Check

1. Building the Bridge 🏗️

The Present Perfect acts like a bridge, connecting something that happened in the past to the present moment.

We build it using: Subject + have/has + Past Participle

Choose the correct helping verb (have or has) and write the correct past participle of the verb in brackets.

1. I _____ (finish) my science project.

2. Fatima _____ (see) that film before.

3. We _____ (travel) to Jeddah many times.

3. Time Words: Just, Already, Yet ⏱️

💡 Remember!

- Just: A very short time ago.
- Already: Sooner than expected.
- Yet: Used in questions or negatives (usually at the end of the sentence!).

Fill in the blank with just, already, or yet to complete the sentence correctly.

The helper verb 'have' is incorrect for the subject 'He'. It should be 'has'. Correct sentence: "He has just bought a new car."
