Secondary Sector, Tertiary Sector & Money

1. Draw a line to match the industry with its activity.

1. Textile industry
2. Food industry
3. Automobile industry
4. Construction industry

- It makes cars and parts for them.
- It converts raw materials into new materials for clothing.
- It is responsible for buildings and public works, such as roads and bridges.
- It involves the manufacturing, processing and packaging of food.

2. Read the sentences and select True or False.

1. Industrial methods use large machinery. (True / False)
2. Artisan methods are a quicker and cheaper process. (True / False)
3. Industrial methods make uniform products. (True / False)
4. Artisan methods use simple tools to make unique products. (True / False)

3. The tertiary sector provides consumers with many services. Click on the words that belong to the tertiary sector.

Education Mining Transport Healthcare Arable farming
Tourism Chemical industry Financial services Commerce

4. Complete the sentences using the words below.

CASH - DEMAND - UP - CARDS - SUPPLY

1. The most common way to pay for goods and services is using _____ (notes and coins).
2. Recently, more people have been using credit and debit _____ or apps on mobile phones.
3. _____ refers to the consumers' need for a product or service.
4. _____ refers to the ability to produce a good or provide a service.
5. According to the law of supply and demand, when there is more demand, prices go _____ .

5. Read the story of a product and complete the sentences using the words below.

TERTIARY - CASH - SECONDARY - UP - SUPPLY

1. A factory uses tomatoes to make and package tomato sauce. This is the _____ sector.
2. A truck driver transports the sauce to a supermarket. Transport and commerce belong to the _____ sector.
3. A customer buys the tomato sauce and pays with notes and coins. They are using _____
4. If the factory has a problem and can only produce a little sauce, we say the _____ is low.
5. If many people want to buy this sauce (high demand), the price will go _____ .

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. Draw a line to match the worker's situation with the correct concepts.

1. "I use simple tools to make unique wooden toys."
2. "I am a doctor. Today, a patient paid me using an app on their phone."
3. "Nobody wants to buy these winter coats because it's summer. Demand is very low."
4. "I operate a large machine that makes hundreds of identical t-shirts quickly."

- Healthcare (Tertiary Sector) & Mobile payment
- Industrial method (Secondary Sector)
- Artisan method (Secondary Sector)
- Prices go down

7. Read the text and choose the correct words to complete the story.

"Hello! I am Sara. I work in the (automobile industry / financial services), making parts for cars in a big factory. This means I work in the (secondary / tertiary) sector.
My brother David works in a hotel, so he works in tourism. Tourism is a service, so it is part of the (secondary / tertiary) sector.
Last month, hundreds of tourists visited his hotel. Because there was a lot of (supply / demand) from the tourists, the prices of the rooms went (up / down)!"

LIVEWORKSHEETS