Narrative Essay Structure Worksheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Part 1: Multiple Choice

1. Which part of the narrative essay introduces the setting and the main character?
a) The solution
b) The scene (person, place, time)
c) The important message
d) The action

2. Where should the "problem" typically be placed in a narrative essay?
a) In the introduction
b) Within the events/action section
c) As the very last sentence
d) In the title only

Part 2: True or False

3. True or False: A good narrative essay should only focus on the events and does not need a message or lesson. (_____)

4. True or False: The "solution" explains how the character overcomes or deals with the problem they faced. (_____)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Part 3: Short Answer

5. Why is it important to include an "important message" at the end of a personal narrative?

6. In your own words, describe how the "events/action" part of the essay is different from the "problem" part.

LIVEWORKSHEETS