@learningtips9872

Talk in pairs.

What's the date today/tomorrow?

It's 16 March.

When's your birthday?

It's in September. It's on 16th September.

NOTE: We write: 26 May or 26th May
We say: the twenty-sixth of May in + months

on + dates

4 Grammar

like love + -ing enjoy hate

I love going to parties, but I hate having parties at home.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

@learningtips9872

Look at the prompts and make sentences.

1. Oleh / love / dance / at parties

_____

2. the children / enjoy / dress up

_____

3. my brother / hate / do / homework

_____

4. I / not like / play / tennis

_____

5. Stacey / enjoy / go / to the cinema

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

@learningtips9872

F. Read and write D for Dave, H for Harry or B for Both.

File Edit View Insert Format Table Tools Window Help

OUR SPACE

E-mail Address

Password Login

I hate going to parties, so I never have a birthday party. On my birthday, my two best friends come to my house and they bring their CDs and DVDs. We hang out all day. We order pizzas and listen to music or watch films. They usually buy me a new computer game and we play it for hours.

Dave, Ilford

My birthday is in July. It's not a good month to have a birthday. I'd like to have a party but I can't. You see, school closes in June so my friends aren't in Wrexham. They are all on holiday. So, I always hang out with my parents and brothers on that day. We stay at home and play board games. We always have a great time but I'd like my friends to be there too.

Harry, Wrexham

1. He watches DVDs on his birthday. ○
2. He wants to have a birthday party. ○
3. He hangs out with his friends. ○
4. He hangs out at home on his birthday. ○

LIVEWORKSHEETS