GERUNDS AND INFINITIVES PRACTICE

1. Which sentence correctly uses a gerund?
A. Swim is good exercise.
B. Swimming is good exercise.
C. To swimming is good exercise.

2. Which sentence correctly uses an infinitive?
A. I want going to the party.
B. I want go to the party.
C. I want to go to the party.

3. Which sentence correctly uses a gerund?
A. She enjoys to read books.
B. She enjoys read books.
C. She enjoys reading books.

4. Which sentence correctly uses an infinitive?
A. He decided to study tonight.
B. He decided studying tonight.
C. He decided study tonight.

5. Which sentence correctly uses a gerund?
A. She is good at draw.
B. She is good at drawing.
C. She is good at to draw.

6. Which sentence correctly uses an infinitive?
A. I'm happy seeing you.
B. I'm happy see you.
C. I'm happy to see you.

7. Which sentence correctly uses a gerund?
A. Cooking takes a lot of time.
B. Cook takes a lot of time.
C. To cooking takes a lot of time.

8. Which sentence correctly uses an infinitive?
A. They hope traveling next year.
B. They hope travel next year.
C. They hope to travel next year.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9. Which sentence correctly uses a gerund?
A. He avoids to drive at night.
B. He avoids driving at night.
C. He avoids drive at night.

10. Which sentence correctly uses an infinitive?
A. She has a plan starting a business.
B. She has a plan start a business.
C. She has a plan to start a business.

11. Which sentence correctly uses a gerund?
A. They talked about move to another city.
B. They talked about to move to another city.
C. They talked about moving to another city.

12. Which sentence correctly uses an infinitive?
A. It's difficult understanding this lesson.
B. It's difficult to understand this lesson.
C. It's difficult understand this lesson.

13. Which sentence correctly uses a gerund?
A. I am interested in learn French.
B. I am interested in to learn French.
C. I am interested in learning French.

14. Which sentence correctly uses an infinitive?
A. She needs finishing her homework.
B. She needs finish her homework.
C. She needs to finish her homework.

15. Which sentence correctly uses a gerund?
A. Travel helps you learning about cultures.
B. To traveling helps you learn about cultures.
C. Traveling helps you learn about cultures.

LIVEWORKSHEETS