

Read the job advertisements. Then complete the comparisons with the words in parentheses.

1.

Assistant needed at an outdoor swimming pool. Must be able to swim. Responsible for keeping pool and changing rooms clean. $12/hour. Tues.–Fri. 12–7.	Learn web design! In search of a bright young person to work as an intern for an advertising agency. Some clerical work. $15/hour. Mon.–Fri. 9–5.
--	--

A: An assistant at a swimming pool has (short hours) an intern.

B: Yes, but working as an intern is _____ (interesting) being a swimming pool assistant.

2.

Travel agency needs energetic people. Knowledge of a second language is a plus. Mostly answering the phone. $18/hour. Flexible hours. Five vacation days a year.	Tutors in math, science, English, and music wanted at private summer school. Challenging work with gifted teenagers. Salary negotiable. Mon.–Sat. 3–7.
---	--

A: Working in a travel agency has _____ (good benefits) working at a private school.

B: Yes, but working as a tutor is _____ (challenging) being a travel agent.