NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC LEARNING

Unit 3 Review

1 Complete the sentences with words from the box.

collective	efficient	mimic	mood	potential	remain	school	swarm

1. Often a group is more _____ than a single person. We work better together!
2. Alonzo is organized and responsible. He is a _____ club president.
3. The way a group of fish moves in response to danger is an example of _____ behavior.
4. One fish makes a move and its closest neighbors will quickly _____ it.
5. Our emotions, or _____, can be changed by the people around us.
6. The fish that _____ by themselves may not survive.

2 Rewrite each sentence. Replace the verb with the correct form of the verb in parentheses. If the verb can be separated, you must separate it.

1. A herd of elephants depends on a female leader. (rely on)

_____

2. She acts on any hint of danger to the members of the group. (respond to)

_____

3. Iain Couzin studies other kinds of animal groups. (look into)

_____

4. He wondered why locusts form swarms, and he found out the answer. (figure out)

_____

5. He believes in collaboration, so he discusses his ideas with his team. (talk about)

_____

6. Could the results of his research on army ants relate to humans? (apply to)

_____

© Cengage Learning, Inc.

LIVEWORKSHEETS