LIVEWORKSHEETS

Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions from 31 to 36.

Many people debate whether living in a city or the countryside is better. Both have unique advantages, but they create very different lifestyles. First, cities provide more job and education opportunities. While rural areas have fewer schools and companies, cities are full of universities and businesses. This makes city life more suitable for those who want career growth, while the countryside may be better for those who prefer a simpler way of living.

Second, life in the city is much more convenient. With hospitals, shopping malls, and public transport available at all times, city dwellers can access services quickly. On the other hand, people in rural areas often need to travel long distances for healthcare or entertainment.

Lastly, while cities are always busy and full of energy, rural areas offer peace and fresh air. Instead of crowded streets and endless noise, the countryside provides open spaces and a slower pace of life. For those who enjoy quiet and nature, rural living can be more appealing.

Question 31. What is the main idea of this passage?

A. That cities are always noisy and crowded makes them unsuitable for living.

B. The countryside is better than the city because it provides peace and fresh air.

C. Living in a city and the countryside offers different advantages and lifestyles.

D. People should move to rural areas to enjoy a healthier and simpler life.

Question 34. The word appealing in paragraph 3 is CLOSEST in meaning to _____.

A. harmful B. comfortable C. surprising D. attractive

Question 35. What final conclusion does the author make about rural living?

A. It is inconvenient because people must travel long distances for services.

B. People who enjoy nature and a quiet life may love living in the countryside.

C. Lacking jobs and education makes rural living unsuitable for the young.

D. City life is always better than rural life due to its convenience and opportunities.

Question 36. What does the writer use to give more explanations to each point?

A. numbers B. symbols

C. comparisons D. quotes (others' words)
