4 Kirjuta, mida Andy on teinud (✓) ja mida ta veel teinud pole.

Andy and Ted are sharing a bedroom.
It's Andy's turn to clean it up today.
He has done some things.
But he hasn't done everything.

List of jobs

- [x] Open the window
- [x] Clean and tidy the bathroom
- [x] Put the clothes in the wardrobe
- [ ] Sort out the things on the desk
- [ ] Take the old magazines to the recycling bank

Andy has opened the window. .....

.....

.....

.....

.....

5 Loe muinasjuttu. Pane sõnaühendid õigetesse lünkadesse.

A to give you something	C to thank the old man	F to travel around
B to help me carry	E to have it	G to give him a hand

Once upon a time there were two brothers. They both loved (1 F) in the world. One day, when they walked along the road, they suddenly saw an old man with a white beard sitting on a rock. The old man asked the brothers, "Where are you going, my boys?"

When the brothers told him about their travels, he said, "I want (2 ___)." He put his hand in his pocket and pulled out some gold coins. "Which one of you wants these coins?" he asked.

"I want them," the big brother replied quickly. The old man handed the coins over to him. Then he put his hand in his other pocket and pulled out a beautiful gemstone*, as bright as the sun, and asked again, "Which one of you wants (3 ___)?"

"I want it," answered the big brother even more quickly. The old man gave him the gemstone. Then he put down his heavy rucksack and said, "Now, who is going (4 ___) this rucksack to the village?"

The big brother said nothing. But the younger brother pulled up his sleeves and was ready (5 ___). The old man smiled and said, "You can have the rucksack, my boy, along with everything that is inside."

"No, I can't have it," the boy said.
"Take it, take it," said the old man. "It's my gift to you."
The younger brother opened the rucksack. And what did he see? It was full of expensive gemstones. He stood up (6 ___), but the old man was not there any more.

*gemstone – kalliskivi

A folktale

LIVEWORKSHEETS