HOMOPHONES

Homophones are words that sound the same but have different meanings and spellings.

TOO = also / very
I have too many books.

TO = direction / toward
I am going to the store.

1 CHOOSE THE CORRECT WORD.

Read each sentence and circle the correct homophone.

1. I am going (too / to) the park.
2. She has (too / to) many toys.
3. Are you coming (too / to) my house?
4. I like pizza (too / to).
5. We walked (too / to) the library.
6. I want (two / to) cookies.
7. Please give me (two / to) pencils.
8. I have (two / to) sisters.
9. Let's go (two / to) the movies.
10. I read (two / to) books today.

2 WRITE THE CORRECT HOMOPHONE.

Choose the correct word from the box and write it in the blank.

too to two too to two too to two too

1. I went _____ the doctor yesterday.
2. I have _____ brothers.
3. This soup is _____ hot!
4. Can you help me _____ my homework?
5. There are _____ cats on the table.

6. I want _____ ice creams, please.
7. She is coming _____ our party.
8. I have _____ many chores to do.
9. Turn left and go _____ the end of the road.
10. We read _____ books about space.

TIP! Read the sentence carefully and think about the meaning. The context will help you choose the correct word!

LIVEWORKSHEETS