The night beckons while you dream

A life never lives in peace

As you stand upon the edge

Woven by a single thread

And fate may fall down upon you

While the devil is knocking

Right at your door

So all you restless

Each night you hear the drums of war

Awaken, awaken

The voice begins to call you while you hunger

A taste of destiny you're searching for

Awaken, awaken

The fight is at your door, take up the cause

Awaken, awaken, awaken, awaken

Awaken, awaken, awaken, awaken

Awaken, awaken, awaken, awaken

As you stand upon the edge

Hanging in the balance

And fate may fall down upon you

While the devil is knocking

So all you restless

Each night you hear the drums of war (Hear the drums of war)

Awaken, awaken

The voice begins to call you while you hunger (While you hunger)

Awaken, awaken, awaken
