

The most noticeable
the south coast of
is connected to
addition of surrounded by approximately completely transformed
the west side
is displayed
eastern part
shows
accommodation areas
relatively untouched
on the west of centre of

On both maps an island _____, the first one _____ what the island looked before touristic development, the second one after.

The island, which has palm trees, is _____ 250 metres long. It is _____ a sea and has a beach on _____. Over an undisclosed period, the island was _____ with the _____ a hotel and a pier, however the _____ of the island appears to have been left untouched .

_____ additions are the hotel rooms. 6 buildings, surrounding some trees, have been built _____ the island and 9 buildings have been constructed in the _____ the island. Between both _____, a reception area and a restaurant has been developed.

A pier, which _____ the reception, has also been built on _____ the island, allowing yachts to dock and access the resort. Apart from the trees, the beach remains the only natural feature that has been _____, although it now has a swimming area.

LIVEWORKSHEETS