LISTENING PRACTICE 3

Listen and fill in the blank with NO MORE THAN THREE words

1: How did the boy get to the appointment?

Girl Tony! You're late! Where have you been?

Boy Sorry I (1) _____. I was trying to decide whether to wait for the next bus or get a taxi when I saw my sister on her scooter across the street. Luckily she gave me (2) _____, because she works near here.

Girl What a coincidence! You were very lucky to meet her.

Boy Yes, I was, indeed: she also had a spare helmet with her.

2: What time are they leaving for the concert?

Boy So, what are the plans for tomorrow's concert?

Girl The concert starts at eight forty-five but we should get there at (3) _____. The coach leaves at a quarter to eight so I'll meet you in the (4) _____ at half past seven. Don't be late, please!

Boy I won't. See you tomorrow!

3: What's Mark doing this weekend?

Lucy Hi Mark, shall we go to the cinema on Saturday?

Mark Sorry, Lucy: I'm going (5) _____ with my grandparents. I spent last weekend helping Mum to tidy up and clean the house, so I decided to (6) _____ and enjoy myself: I love skiing. We can go to the cinema next weekend if you want.

Lucy OK then, we'll go next weekend! Have fun in the mountains!

4: Which photograph are they going to send?

Boy Which picture do you want to send Laura?

Girl Oh, please not this one: I (7) _____ in it.

Boy But it's the only one with both of us standing in front of that amazing bridge.

Girl Why don't we send her this one: the tower is (8) _____, isn't it?

Boy Well, you're right: this one is better... All right then, shall we go and visit the old castle now?

Girl Sure, let's go.

5: Where is the boy going on holiday?

Girl Where are you going on holiday this year? I'm going to Rome with my grandparents.

Boy Sounds great! I wish I could visit (9) _____ of Europe, too. Unfortunately, my sister is still too young I'm sure she'd get bored. Last year we spent a week (10) _____ by the lake and she really enjoyed it; that's why we've already booked a hotel at the seaside.

LIVEWORKSHEETS