My best friend

by Owen Jones

My best friend is Patrick. He's 14 years old. We live in Brighton. Patrick and I both go to Brownwood Secondary School but we aren't in the same class. Patrick has got brown hair and blue eyes. He's very tall and thin. He's into sports. Patrick is in the school football team. In the afternoons, we often play football or basketball together. Sometimes Patrick comes to my house and we watch clips online or listen to hip hop music. Patrick is very good at drawing. He can draw great pictures of people or animals and sometimes he does funny cartoons. Patrick's in the school Art club and often takes part in art competitions.

Last month, Patrick won a graffiti competition. He won it for a project to decorate the walls behind the train station with graffiti showing the most famous places in Brighton. His drawings for the project were funny and colourful. Next Wednesday, Patrick's going to the train station with a group of 20 students from the Art club. They're going to graffiti the station walls according to Patrick's winning project. Patrick is so proud and pleased that everybody is talking about him. Our local TV channel wants to do an interview with Patrick next Monday. I think Patrick will be a famous painter or book illustrator in the future, but he says he wants to be an architect.
