CLASS TRIP TO THE THEATER

Last Friday, our class went on a trip to the theatre. We were very excited because we were going to see a musical called The Pirate's Treasure. We traveled by bus and arrived at the theatre at ten o'clock. The building was very big, and there were colorful posters on the walls. Before the show started, our teacher, Mrs. Green, told us to sit quietly and watch carefully.

The musical was about some pirates looking for a hidden treasure on an island. The actors sang songs, danced, and wore funny costumes. Everyone enjoyed the show. Well... almost everyone.

During the musical, Ben felt sleepy. He often feels sleepy because he plays video games at night. Ben closed his eyes for a minute. Then he fell asleep!

A few minutes later, the pirates on the stage shouted, "We found the treasure!" Ben suddenly woke up. He jumped out of his seat and shouted, "Where is it? I want to see it too!"

The audience laughed, and Ben's face turned red. Even the actors smiled.

After the show, Ben said, "I liked the musical." His friend Lucy laughed and asked, "Really? Which part was your favorite?" Ben thought for a moment and replied, "The treasure part!"

"But Ben," said Lucy, "you were asleep for most of it!"

Everyone laughed again, including Ben.
