LEXICAL TEST

FAMILY AND RELATIONSHIPS

Student's Name: _____ Date: _____

Part 1: Family Members

Complete the sentences with the correct family words.

1. A person who has no brothers or sisters is an o_____ c_____ .
2. If your son gets married, his wife becomes your d-i-l_____ .
3. Your grandmother's mother is your g-g_____ .
4. Your uncle's or aunt's children are your c_____ .
5. Your brother's or sister's daughter is your n_____ .
6. If your father remarries, his new wife is your s_____ .
7. If you have a male child, he is your s_____ .
8. Your uncle is married to your a_____ .
9. If your sister has the same mother as you but a different father, she is your h-s_____ .

Part 2: Stages of Life & Collocations

Match the verbs (1-10) with the correct words (a-j) to form life stages expressions.

| | |
|---|---|
| 1. graduate | a) a job |
| 2. pass | b) married |
| 3. get | c) a house |
| 4. get | d) from work |
| 5. leave | e) from university |
| 6. retire | f) born |
| 7. fall | g) a family |
| 8. start | h) in love |
| 9. be | i) home |
| 10. buy | j) your driving test |

Answers: 1. ___ , 2. ___ , 3. ___ , 4. ___ , 5. ___ , 6. ___ , 7. ___ , 8. ___ , 9. ___ , 10. ___

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Part 3: Family Celebrations & Holidays

Write the name of the holiday or celebration described below.

It's celebrated on the last day of the year. → _____

It's celebrated on 31st October in the USA, Britain, and Canada. Children dress up as ghosts and witches. → _____

It's a day when children give their dads presents and cards. → _____

It's celebrated on 24th December. → _____

It's a party given for a woman who is having a baby, where friends bring presents. → _____

It's an American celebration in autumn where families eat a special meal including roast turkey. → _____

It's a holiday when people in some countries give and receive chocolate eggs. → _____

Part 4: Relationship Phrasal Verbs & Vocabulary

Fill in the blanks with the correct words or phrasal verbs from the box. Change the form of the verb if necessary.

fall out with | get together | get on with | make up | get into | take after | look up to | date | jealous | break up | fall in love | relationship | friendship

1. I really _____ my older brother because he is honest and always helps me.
2. It is easier to _____ with somebody by phone or email if you don't want to look them in the eye.
3. To have a happy _____, you should avoid arguments and conflicts with your partner.
4. She _____ her mother; they both have the same beautiful smile and calm character.
5. Do you ever _____ your friends and stop talking to each other after a disagreement?
6. The perfect place for a first _____ is a park or a cozy cinema.
7. We usually _____ as a whole family during the weekend to have dinner.
8. If your boyfriend or girlfriend gets angry when you talk to other people, they are probably _____.
9. It isn't a good idea to _____ somebody who is much younger than you.
10. To build up a true _____, you must always try to understand your friend.
11. How often do you _____ an argument about politics with your family members?
12. Try not to _____ at first sight — it's romantic, but it isn't very wise.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

13. They had a big fight, but I think they will ..... quickly and become friends again.

Part 5: Spending Time Together

Complete the phrases with the correct verb: play, go, hang, text, visit, chat, eat, rent, work*. (Some verbs can be used more than once).*

..... send messages

..... each other at home

..... out (e.g. in the gym)

..... out at the shopping centre

..... into town

..... out (e.g. in a café or restaurant)

..... online through Skype / Zoom

..... on the games console

..... out of town

..... a DVD or Blu-ray

LIVEWORKSHEETS