

Task 7

1. Read the notes below.
2. Answer the questions that follow.

Present continuous tense	Form	Example
To refer to things happening now.	is/am/are verb-ing	• I am reading a book on the environment. • Lee Ann and her friends are participating in the gotong royong project.
To refer to habits and things that happen over a period of time.		• Mr. Joshua is resting at home after his surgery. • They are studying in the university.
To refer to things in the near future.		• Najmee is coming home on Thursday. • We are having a party next week.

Complete the conversations below using the correct present continuous tense.

Mum : Hello, dear. Is everything okay?

Dad : Hi. Everything is fine. Najmi _____ (sweep) the floor and Tina _____ (water) the plants in the garden.

Mum : How about Arif? Is he _____ (sleep)?

Dad : No, he isn't. He is _____ (play) with his toys. Where are you now?

Mum : I am _____ (drive) home now.

Dad : That's great. Tina and I are _____ (cook) dinner. See you soon.

Mum : Sure. Bye.

Complete the sentences using present continuous tense.

1. They are not walking to school today.
2. They are riding their bicycles.
3. He is not _____ a movie. He is _____ a book.
4. They are not _____ to music. They _____ a song.
5. She is not _____ to work today. She is _____ the bus.
6. He is not _____ in the sea. He is _____ a sandcastle on the beach.
7. I am not _____ dinner at home tonight. I am _____ dinner at a restaurant.