Revision Unit 5

Passive Voice (Past-Present-Future)

1) Click on the correct option.

a. These books will be delivered / are delivered tomorrow morning to your house.

b. The church was build / was built in the 15th century, but now it's a library.

c. Huge rocks were used / are used to build Stonehenge in England.

d. The ingredients were measured / will be measured, but the cake still tasted strange.

e. Old clothes will be collected / will collect at the school, and we will give them away to charity.

f. The picnic is terrible! The flies were attracted / are attracted to the food. They are everywhere!

2) Complete the conversation with the correct passive form (Past-Present-Future) of the verbs in brackets.

Chris: Hey Alison, let's see if you can answer these questions.

Alison: A quiz? OK.

Chris: Right, first question. How many languages _____ (speak) in India?

Alison: Em... now, a lot. 200?

Chris: No, 400! Next one: When _____ the first mobile phone _____ (create)?

Alison: I think it was 1998.

Chris: Very good! What _____ (measure) in megabits per second?

Alison: That's easy! Your internet connection.

Chris: And...where _____ 5.6 million cars _____ (produce) in 2017?

Alison: Em...France?

Chris: No, it was Germany. So, after all your hard work, would you like a pizza?

Alison: Great idea. But first answer this question. What _____ (deliver) by drones in the future?

Chris: That's obvious....PIZZA!!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Causative "have sth done"

3) Rewrite the sentences using the "have + object + past participle" structure.

Example: The mechanic fixed my car yesterday→ I had my car fixed by the mechanic yesterday.

a. The hairdresser cuts my hair every month -→ I _____ every month.

b. The painter painted our house last week-→ We _____ last week.

c. The dentist checks her teeth every year→ She _____ every year.

d. The photographer printed their family photos → They _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS