6. Yeah, we played / we have played some songs at Josh's house in his dad's garage.
7. We've disagreed many times / sometimes. But we've never / ever argued.

Language in Use Present Perfect: ever & never

- We use the present perfect to talk about experiences in our lives. The exact time or date is not important. We form the present perfect with have/has + the past participle of the verb.

e.g. I have visited Villarrica Lake.

My family has been extremely supportive of my work.

- We often use ever and never with the present perfect.

e.g. Have you ever slept over a friend's house?

I have never seen Cloak & Dagger.

5  Listen and repeat the sentences.

a. Have you ever ridden a horse?

b. Has she ever played the piano?

c. They've never flown in a plane.
