The Big Race at the Olympics

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Today is a beautiful, sunny day in Paris. It is the Olympic Games! Many people from all over the world are sitting in the big stadium. They are shouting and waving their flags. They want to see the 100-meter running race.

There are eight runners on the track. They are wearing different colors. The runner from America is wearing a blue shirt. The runner from Vietnam is wearing a red shirt with a yellow star. Everyone is very excited.

"Ready, steady, go!" shouts the referee.

The runners jump and start running very fast. The American runner is leading at first. But look! In the last twenty meters, the Vietnamese runner runs like the wind. He passes the other runners.

Finally, he crosses the white line first! He wins the gold medal. He is smiling and jumping up and down because he is very happy. His coach runs to him and gives him a big hug. What a great day at the Olympics!
