Funny Freddy is a clown in a small circus. Every morning, he opens a very big cupboard and chooses his clothes. He never wears the same outfit twice!

Today, Freddy is wearing a striped cotton T-shirt with checked trousers. His jacket is polka-dotted, and it is made of wool. He has a floral scarf around his neck and a solid blue belt. His big plastic shoes are bright yellow, and his leather gloves are green. On his head, he wears a plaid hat with a little red feather.

When Freddy walks into the circus, all the children laugh. "Your clothes are so funny!" they say. Freddy smiles and says, "Wait until you see my magic trick!"

He takes off his plaid hat and pulls out a rabbit. Then he waves his floral scarf, and it changes into a beautiful striped flag. Finally, he throws his polka-dotted jacket into the air. It becomes hundreds of colorful balloons!

The children clap and cheer. They love Freddy's strange clothes because they are always part of his magic show.

At the end of the day, Freddy puts all his clothes back in the cupboard. Then he smiles and says, "I wonder what I will wear tomorrow!"
