Text:

Last summer, Anna went to London with her parents. It was her first visit to the capital of the United Kingdom. They stayed there for five days and visited many famous places.

On the first day, they saw Big Ben, the Houses of Parliament, and the London Eye. Anna enjoyed the beautiful view of the city from the London Eye.

The next day, the family visited the Tower of London. They learned about its history and saw the Crown Jewels. Anna thought they were amazing.

They also walked through Hyde Park, took many photos, and tried traditional fish and chips in a small café.

Before going home, Anna bought some souvenirs for her friends. She said that London was an exciting city and she would like to visit it again one day.
