At the Clothing Store

Mia is shopping for a new jacket. She is holding a black jacket and says, "I really like this jacket." Then she points to two jackets on a shelf across the store and asks, "How much are those jackets?" The shop assistant tells her they are on sale, but Mia decides to buy the black jacket.

6. Why does Mia use the word "those" when asking about the jackets?

A. Because the jackets are next to her.
B. Because the jackets are far from her.
C. Because there is only one jacket.
D. Because the jackets are already sold.

7. What can we infer about Mia's decision?

A. She buys the jackets on the shelf because they are on sale.
B. She buys the black jacket she is holding.
C. She does not buy anything.
D. She buys all the jackets in the store.
