Asalha Puja Day

The Day of the First Sermon

Read the passage.

Asalha Puja Day is an important Buddhist holiday.
It usually falls on the full moon day of the 8th lunar month.
On this day, the Lord Buddha gave His first sermon to five monks at the Deer Park in Sarnath, India.
The sermon was about the Middle Way and the Four Noble Truths.
After listening to the sermon, the five monks became the first disciples of the Buddha.
Thai people go to the temple to make merit, listen to sermons, give offerings, and keep the five precepts.
Asalha Puja Day reminds us to follow the Buddha's teachings and do good deeds.
