Play Safe

Reading for Analysis

Read the story.

It is Saturday morning. Ben, Jane, and Tom go to the park to play together.

Ben wants to ride his bicycle. Before he starts, he wears a helmet because he knows it protects his head.

Jane wants to play on the playground. She waits for her turn before using the slide. She never pushes other children because she wants everyone to be safe.

Tom brings his scooter. He wears knee pads and elbow pads. He rides slowly because there are many young children in the park.

Later, the friends want to cross the road to buy some water. They stop at the zebra crossing. They look right, look left, and look right again before crossing. They cross the road together.

At the end of the day, everyone has fun and goes home safely. They know that playing safely helps everyone enjoy their day.
