Speaker 1: We need to decide what to do for the school music festival. Do you still want to 1_____ ?

Speaker 2: I think so, but I'm nervous. If I perform in front of everyone, I'll probably forget the lyrics.

Speaker 1: You won't forget them if we 2_____ enough. We still have two weeks.

Speaker 2: That's true. If we practice after school, we'll have more time to prepare.

Speaker 1: Exactly. What kind of song should we choose?

Speaker 2: Maybe a rock song. If we choose something 3_____, the audience will probably sing with us.

Speaker 1: Good idea. But if the song is too difficult, we won't be ready in time.

Speaker 2: Then let's choose something simple. If my cousin helps us, he'll play the 4_____.

Speaker 1: Is he available?

Speaker 2: I'm not sure. If he finishes his 5_____ this week, he'll come to our rehearsal on Saturday.

Speaker 1: Great. And if he can't come, I'll ask my brother to help us.

Speaker 2: What about the drums?

Speaker 1: The school has a drum kit. If the music teacher gives us 6_____, we'll use it.

Speaker 2: Perfect. Imagine if we won the festival!

Speaker 1: If we won, I'd celebrate with everyone and record another song.

Speaker 2: I'd be shocked! If I were the winner, I'd 7_____ thank my family and friends first.

Speaker 1: Would you post the performance on social media?

Speaker 2: Maybe. If the recording looks good, I'll post it.

Speaker 1: And what would you do if the video became really popular?

Speaker 2: If it became popular, I'd be excited, but I'd also be worried about negative comments.

Speaker 1: I understand. Some people say terrible things online.

Speaker 2: Yes. If someone posted something mean, I'd try not to take it 8_____.

Speaker 1: That's probably the best reaction. If you reply angrily, the situation will only get worse.

Speaker 2: True. What would you do if you became famous because of one video?

Speaker 1: If I became famous, I'd use my 9_____ to support young musicians.

Speaker 2: That sounds nice. If I had a lot of money, I'd create a free music school for teenagers.

Speaker 1: I love that idea. If I could choose any career, I'd work with music too.

Speaker 2: Really? What would you do?

Speaker 1: If I were a professional musician, I'd travel, perform at festivals and meet artists from different countries.

Speaker 2: That would be 10_____. But for now, we need to survive our first school performance.

Speaker 1: Exactly. If we keep talking and don't start practicing, we'll never be ready.

Speaker 2: You're right. Let's choose the song today, and if everyone agrees, we'll start rehearsing tomorrow.
