Directions: Work in pairs to continue Kerem and Dilara's conversation from Audio 1. Imagine it is Saturday morning role play a 2 minute phone call to check the weather and confirm your afternoon plans (joining the photography walk in the park, or staying at Dilara's place to bake pastries, binge watch the sci-fi documentary, and play acoustic guitar).

1-Student A (Dilara): Call Kerem on Saturday morning to check if he can still make it at 3:30 and ask whether you are going to the photography walk or staying indoors. Listen carefully without interrupting while Kerem updates a detail, and write down ONLY the final confirmed Saturday plan below:

– Final Meeting Time & Activity: _____

– Extra Item / Detail Confirmed: _____

2- Student B (Kerem): Answer Dilara's call naturally using pauses/fillers (um, uh, well, let's see) and self-correction markers (actually, I mean, sorry, wait) to adjust at least two details: (1) start to say you can come at 3:30 or bring your acoustic guitar, then pause and self correct using 'have to' to explain a small obligation/delay, and (2) use 'could' or 'might' to suggest or confirm your backup plan.
