1 Fill in the gaps with the correct relative pronoun or adverb: who, which, whose, when, where or why

1. Having full service is the reason I always choose resort hotels for my holidays.
2. Meryl Streep, is an American actress, still holds the record for the most award nominations.
3. Rock climbing is an activity needs a lot of courage and strength.
4. Students are planning to volunteer at the Winter Games must give in their names by tomorrow.
5. She is the singer new single went straight to number one in the charts .
6. 1997 was the year Robbie Williams released his first solo single.
7. This film, is about Vietnam, is fantastic.
8. He's the actor played Aquaman.
9. The company, was founded in 1989, has its headquarters in Madrid.
10. The teacher you spoke to is Ms Parks.

2 Complete the sentences using which or whom and the expressions from the list.

1. This forest is full of ancient trees, are hundreds of years old. Some of them have even been here for a thousand years.
2. The school has bought twenty new computers, are going to be put in the library. That's ten more than before.
3. I've got six cousins, live in the same country. They're all scattered around the world!
4. Jill has two cats, are adorable!
5. The university has a small number of well-known researchers, only have won a prize.
6. There are a number of good schools in the area, require an entry exam. Almost all in fact.

3 Choose the correct sentence.

1 Our dog, whose name is Butch, is a two-year-old Alsatian.

Our dog whose name is Butch is a two-year-old Alsatian.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2 I'll never forget 2010, when I won my first medal.

I'll never forget 2010 when I won my first medal.

3 The man, whose car was stolen, has gone to the police station.

The man whose car was stolen has gone to the police station.

4 The CD, which you lent me last week, is scratched.

The CD which you lent me last week is scratched.

5 Golden Dish, where Jake and I had dinner last night, is very expensive.

Golden Dish where Jake and I had dinner last night is very expensive.

4 Choose the correct item

1 The smartphone company launched five new products in spite of on account of its fifth anniversary.

2 The reason for why I haven't called you is that I've been busy studying for finals.

3 I guess they are not coming since though neither has replied to the invitation.

4 The documentary was long, but as it was very interesting.

5 All the students were told to leave the school quietly because due to the fire drill.

6 The working conditions in this company are quite good. Since Still, the work itself is not that interesting.

7 Lisa took her credit card with her for so that she could buy a pair of shoes.

8 He closed the door softly so as not to in order to disturb the baby.

9 She took a management course in order to in case broaden her job opportunities.

10 Harry was walking slowly to avoid so that slipping on the ice.

5 Choose the correct item.

1 It was such a so such such an nice day that we had breakfast in the garden.

2 She was talking such a so such such an quickly that I couldn't understand what she was saying.

3 He studied such a so such such an little for the exam that he failed it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4 John drank such a so such such an much coffee in the afternoon that he couldn't sleep at night.

5 It was such a so such such an good party that no one wanted to go home.

6 There was such a so such such an amusing film on TV last night that I stayed up until 2 am.

7 The knife was such a so such such an sharp that I cut myself.

LIVEWORKSHEETS