Name:_____ Date:_____

Workshop: Mastering Will & Won't

Complete the five exercises below to demonstrate your understanding of will and won't for predictions, instant decisions, offers, and promises.

Exercise 1: Identifying Correct Grammar

1. Which sentence uses the future with will correctly? Choose the single correct option.

[ ] A. They will travels to Bogota next weekend.

[ ] B. They will travel to Bogota next weekend.

[ ] C. They will to travel to Bogota next weekend.

[ ] D. They will traveling to Bogota next weekend.

Exercise 2: Contextual Fill-in-the-Blank

2. Complete each workplace dialogue by writing will or won't (or contractions 'll / won't) in the blanks.

a. Elena: "These boxes look really heavy." | Carlos: "Don't worry, I _____ help you carry them."

b. Manager: "Are you ready for the board presentation?" | David: "Yes, I promise I _____ let you down."

c. Sofia: "Why are you taking a taxi instead of the bus?" | Mateo: "Because the bus _____ arrive on time in this traffic."

d. Receptionist: "The phone is ringing at the front desk." | Ana: "I _____ answer it!"

Exercise 3: Sentence Unscramble

3. Unscramble the word groups to form a complete, grammatically correct negative sentence.

the technician / until tomorrow / the damaged screen / won't replace

---

Exercise 4: Function Matching

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Match each statement with its communicative purpose. Write the matching letter (A, B, C, or D) in the box.

Sentence	Function	Match
1. "It is freezing in this meeting room. I'll turn down the AC."	A. Future Prediction based on opinion
2. "I believe electric cars will replace gas vehicles by 2040."	B. Refusal / Machine failure
3. "Don't worry about dinner tonight; I'll cook for everyone."	C. Instant Decision
4. "My work laptop won't turn on no matter what I press."	D. Offer of assistance

Exercise 5: Short Workplace Predictions

5. Read the question below. Write two complete sentences expressing your opinion: one affirmative sentence using will and one negative sentence using won't.

Question: How do you think artificial intelligence will change office work over the next ten years?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Answers

1. B. They will travel to Bogota next weekend. (Explanation: modal auxiliary will is always followed by the base infinitive without -s, -ed, -ing, or to.)

2. a. will / 'll | b. won't | c. won't | d. will / 'll

3. The technician won't replace the damaged screen until tomorrow.

4. 1 = C (Instant Decision), 2 = A (Future Prediction based on opinion), 3 = D (Offer of assistance), 4 = B (Refusal / Machine failure)

5. Model answers: AI will automate routine administrative tasks. / AI won't replace human critical thinking and creativity in leadership roles.

LIVEWORKSHEETS