Woman 1: After my tennis lesson on Saturday morning, do you want to meet me for lunch? We could then go to the cinema. There are a couple of very good films on.

Woman 2: It's OK for you. You'll have a lot of _____ in the morning, but I won't. I think I'd prefer to do something more active, like swimming or...

Woman 1: Well, the swimming pool's open in the evening. We could have a swim then, after the cinema.

Woman 2: OK. But I think I'll follow your _____ and start taking tennis lessons soon.

2

Student 1: Is Professor Brown's _____ on the 23rd of March, as we were told? Somebody said it's changed.

Student 2: It has. Professor Brown has a meeting that day, so the lecture's now going to be on the 21st, same time.

Student 1: Oh, what a pity, I won't be _____ to make it, I've got lots of work to finish. I could make a later date, towards the end of the month.

Student 2: Well, we suggested the 31st, because it's a Friday, but the lecture room wasn't _____ then.

3

Hitomi: Did you talk to him?

Freddie: Yes. There are lots of _____ things to do at the castle. Next week, there's a race. You have to run five kilometres. Then, next month, you can see some cars that are over fifty years old!

Hitomi: Do they do painting _____?

Freddie: The next one's next summer!

4

Luis: Charlotte! I've got the computer game called Green Space.

Charlotte: Where did you _____ about it, Luis?

Luis: I _____ a magazine from a schoolfriend and there was an ad for it. I asked my mum and she bought it for me from their website.

5

Boy: I really _____ that. I came so close to getting the ball in the net a few times, too.

Girl: If you all play as well as that in every game, you should start actually _____ some of the other teams.

Boy: I hope so. We've all trained really hard this season, and our new coach has made a big _____. I think I probably played better than usual because Mum and Dad could both get here for once. I'm always really cheerful when they do.

Girl: Well I'm sure they enjoyed it as much as I did.
