Name: _____ Date: _____

The Honest Tailor and the Lost Purse

Once upon a time, a young tailor named Maya worked in a small village shop. She was known for making strong clothes and treating every customer with kindness.
One morning, Maya found a leather purse on the floor outside her shop. It was heavy, and when she opened it, she saw many gold coins inside. Maya's family needed money, but she knew the purse belonged to someone else. She asked the villagers about it until an elderly farmer named Thomas come to her door. He had last the purse while corrying money to buy seeds for his form. Maya returned the purse without taking a single coin. Thomas was very grateful and offered her a reword. Maya smiled and soid, "Your thanks are enough." From that day on, the villagers trusted Maya more than ever. Moral: Honesty brings a reword that money connot buy.

Match the words (Свържи думите)

tailor •	• семена
purse •	• доброта
coins •	• шивачка
farmer •	• монети
seeds •	• фермер
kindness •	• кесия

Circle the correct answer (Огради верния отговор)

1) What was Maya's job?
a) Teacher b) Tailor c) Baker

2) What was Maya known for?
a) Making strong clothes and kindness
b) Baking bread c) Singing songs

3) What did Maya find outside her shop?
a) A hat b) A leather purse c) A book

4) Who did the purse belong to?
a) A young boy b) An elderly farmer named Thomas
c) A rich king

5) Why did Thomas need the money?
a) To buy a horse b) To buy new clothes
c) To buy seeds for his farm

Complete the sentences (Допълни изреченията)

Word Bank [heavy | single | trusted | thanks]

From that day on, the villagers _____ Maya more than ever.

Maya smiled and said, "Your _____ ore enough."

Maya returned the purse without taking a _____ coin.

The leather purse was _____, and inside were many gold coins.

LIVEWORKSHEETS