OBJECT PRONOUNS

Look at the following table about OBJECT PRONOUNS.

SUBJECT PRONOUNS	OBJECT PRONOUNS
I →	me
you →	you
he →	him
she →	her
it →	it
we →	us
they →	them

Object Pronouns substitute a noun / expression that is the Object of a sentence.

- These Pronouns are placed after the verb:
  Mary loves Peter. = Mary loves him.
- Object Pronouns can follow a preposition:
  She thinks about Peter.
  = She thinks about him.

A Write the OBJECT PRONOUN that substitutes the underlined nouns / expressions.

He works with Joe. = _____	They told Martha. = _____	We play with the dogs. = _____
You went to the Zoo. = _____	John loves his wife. = _____	He lives with Joe and I. = _____
She visits her mother and you. = ____	The book is on the table. = _____	That car hit some trees. = _____

B Circle the correct Pronoun.

1. Granny gave us / we a computer game for Christmas.
2. I'm going to phone they / them now.
3. Mother took me / I to the Natural History Museum.
4. His older brother helps he / him with the homework.
5. The taxi driver drove her / she to the theatre.
6. My cat loves that armchair because it likes to sleep on it's / it.
7. Teachers help you / your.

C Complete the sentences with the OBJECT PRONOUN corresponding to the underlined noun/ expression.

Example: I eat soup. I eat it.

1. The baby drinks milk. _____
2. He made promises to Julia and me. _____
3. We can understand you and your brother. _____
4. I miss my parents. _____
5. Juliet loved Romeo. _____
6. Romeo loved Juliet. _____
7. The student is writing a composition. _____

8. I sent a letter to Jim and Alice. _____
9. Father is cleaning the garage. _____

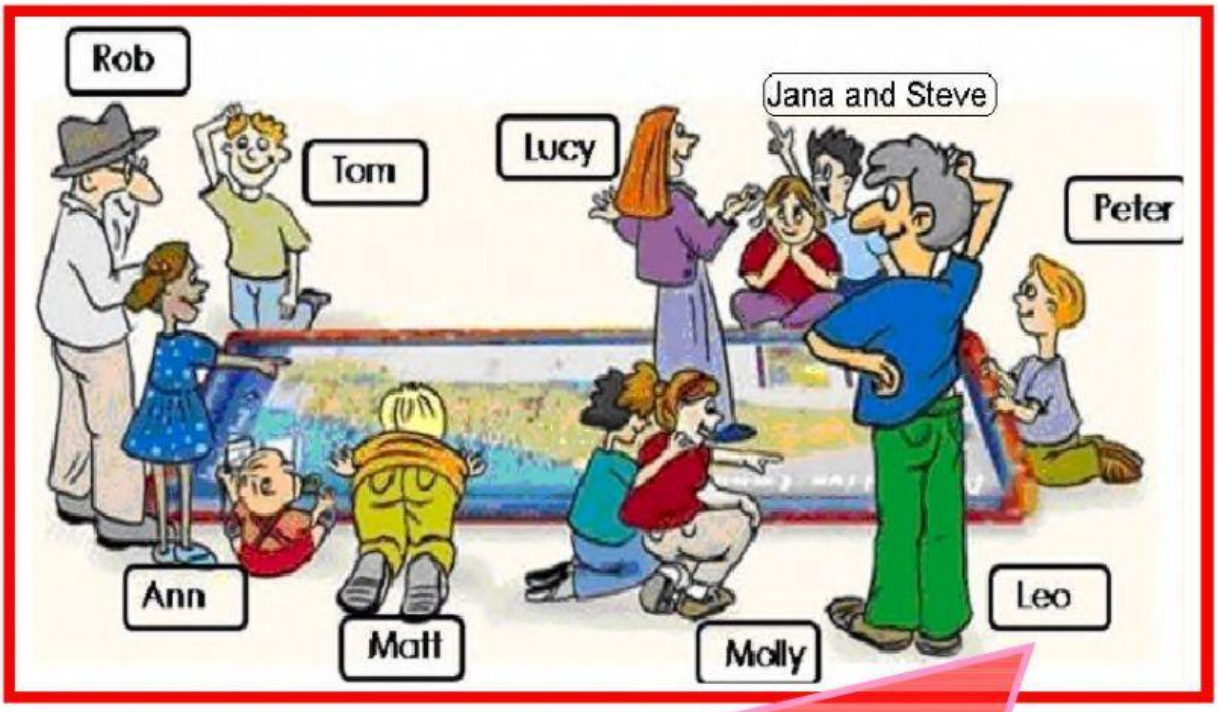
LIVEWORKSHEETS



Hello, my name is Leo and this is my family. Look at them! Lucy is my wife and I love her very much. We have three children: Peter, Jana and Steve. Can you see them! Aren´t they nice! Jana and Steve have two cats. Their names are Black and White. Peter doesn´t like them but his hobby is his new blue bike. He cleans it every day! Lucy´s sister is Ann, you can see her on the left and her husband is Tom. She married him two years ago. Mat is their son and Jane often looks after him. He can play with her for hours. Lucy and her family live next to our house so they visit us quite often. So some and visit us too! We are looking forvard to you!

A. Answer the questions

1. Is Leo married?
2. Does Leo have any children?How many?
3. What are his children´s names?
4. Do his children have any animals?
5. Who or what are Black and White?
6. What is Peter´s hobby?
7. Does Leo have a sister in-law?Her name?
8. How long is Lucy married?
9. Who does Jane look after?
10. Where does Leo live?

LIVEWORKSHEETS