

Marie Curie (November 7, 1867 – July 4, 1934)

1. Read and complete with the correct verb tense

To be x 4	discover	Share
begin	die	find	use

Marie Curiea Polish physicist, chemist, and feminist. She did research on radioactivity. She the first woman professor at the University of Paris. She also the first woman to win a Nobel Prize.

Curie radium, one of the most radioactive and dangerous metals. She this discovery with her husband Pierre Curie and Gustave Bémont. The three radium in 1898.

During World War I, Curie her research to develop portable x-ray machines to help soldiers on the battlefield. Near the 1920s, Curie and many of her colleagues to suffer from symptoms of cancer. On July 4, 1934, at 66 years old, she in a sanatorium, a medical facility for long-term illness, in the French Alps. Shethen buried next to her husband in Sceaux, France.

Teacher Claudrodri