

Listening

1 Label the pictures with these words.

butterfly insects lake long grass pond wild flowers

1

2

3

4

5

6

3 You will hear a radio interview with a man called Richard Sandland, who is the head teacher of a secondary school. For questions 1-6, choose the best answer (A, B or C).

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Why did Richard decide to create the wildlife area? A The students wanted to help local wildlife. B The area looked unattractive. C Some wildlife had already moved into the area. 2 What does Richard say about the long grass? A It will be replaced by a wild flower area. B It's great for attracting insects. C It will be left to grow around the pond. 3 What do Richard's students think about working on the project after school and at weekends? A They don't mind giving up their spare time for the project. B Many have been put off from getting involved. C They won't be able to help much because of their other hobbies. | 4 Why did Richard need to involve an expert from the local wildlife society? A He wanted to be sure his plans would work. B He needed expert advice on what to do. C He wanted to encourage the students to join in. 5 What does Richard say about the modern education system? A It's not as good as it was when he was young. B It misses out an important part of education. C It doesn't offer enough choice of subjects. 6 What will students be doing frequently as the project progresses? A taking photographs of the wildlife area B giving reports to the radio station C writing about the project online |
|---|--|