

you can pack things in here		where you park your car at your house; a place that also fixes cars and other vehicles to travel by sitting on a horse, bicycle, or motorcycle and make it move		to use a boat and the wind to travel it flies in the air; not an aeroplane		the part of a vehicle that uses fuel to make it move a shiny piece of glass where you can see your face and other things		opposite of left to arrive too late to get on a bus, train, or aircraft		the place where you can get on or get off the bus it has two wheels and an engine; it's faster than a scooter		the period when you have to wait for a longer time than normal a journey in which you visit a place for a short time		a place where you can get on or off a bus or train the person who repairs cars, bikes, planes etc.		to change place or change where something is an event when someone goes or comes back to a place where they were before (Eg. flight back to Ho Chi Minh City)		an important small book that you need to visit another country; you usually take it to the airport a building where a bus starts or ends its journey		the metal tracks that trains travel on someone who visits a place on holiday and does not live there		you fly in it, like a plane or airplane when something causes you to be late (adjective)		a road that is in the shape of a circle that cars drive around something that makes it bright		to fix or mend something A person who travels to a new place to learn about it.		to go on a journey to different places opposite of right		a small piece of paper that shows you have paid to do something, for example travel on a bus cars, trucks, buses and motorbikes drive on it, like a street		something that is burned to provide heat or power; example: petrol, oil and gas the group of bags and cases that you carry with you when you are travelling		it takes you to the hospital you travel from one place to another		a journey in an aircraft the person who shows visitors and tourists a place or area		someone whose job is to design, build, or repair machines, engines, roads, bridges, etc the directions you follow to go somewhere		something that you sit on when you travel in a bus, plane, car etc.
a small bag that you put on your back		the person who makes the car, bus etc. move a system of trains that is built under a city		a building where bus or train journeys start or end a thick, round piece of rubber filled with air, that fits around a wheel		a liquid fuel that cars use where you wait before you get on a train		the place tourists go to for extra information to make something happen at a later time than planned; to make something late (verb)		a comfortable bus used to take groups of people on long journeys to go away from a place		a place where you can buy petrol an area of land that has its own government, army, etc		to make a car, bus, or train move, and control what it does

