Reading

L. Read the story and fill in the sentences below. One sentence does not match.

A Lucky Escape

It was a perfect day for skiing, the sun was shining so Josie put on her sunglasses and skied to the lift. [66]

While she was waiting for the lift, she heard a loud, rumbling noise. She looked up and saw lots of snow falling down the mountain. [67]

Josie looked around for somewhere to hide. She noticed a ski hut nearby and ran towards it. Once inside, the ground began to shake and she was afraid the avalanche was going to fall on the small wooden hut. [68]

After a few minutes, Josie tried to open the door of the hut, but the weight of the snow was pressing against it. [69] She stood on some empty boxes and pulled herself through the hole. [70] She was happy and relieved to be safe but she decided that next year she was going to the seaside for her holiday!

A Josie was still lying on the snow when rescuers came with dry clothes and a warm drink.
B It was the last day of her holiday and she wanted to enjoy it.
C The noise became louder as the avalanche came crashing down the mountain towards the ski lift.
D Suddenly, there was a loud crash and everything went quiet.
E Josie forgot to take her sunglasses.
F She was looking for a way out when she noticed sunlight shining through a hole in the roof.
