Plant Growth Process Translocation

Instruction: Fill in the blanks by dragging and dropping the correct words.

Food made in Photosynthesis is moved to other parts of the plant through a process called _____. This process occurs in the _____ vessels. Without this process we would not have most of the _____ that we eat to survive. For example, the roots of _____ get swollen for us to have food. Or the fruits of _____ are a result of this process.

Food Carrot Mango Translocation Phloem

LIVEWORKSHEETS