Name: _____ Date: _____

Subject: Health and Family Life Topic: Managing the Environment

A) Instructions: Choose the correct answer for each question by typing the letter next to the correct answer in the blank space provided.

1) What does the acronym NEMA stand for? _____

A. National Emergent Management Agency
B. National Emergency Management Agency
C. National Emergency Manager Agency
D. Natural Emergency Management Agency

2) NEMA works along with RBDF during natural disasters. What does RBDF stand for? _____

A. Royal Bahamian Defense Force
B. Royal Bahamas Defender Force
C. Royal Bahamas Defense Force
D. Royal Bahamian Defender Force

3) Another agency that works along with NEMA during natural disasters, such as hurricanes, is RBPF. What does RBPF stand for? _____

A. Royal Bahamas Police Force
B. Royal Bahamian Police Force
C. Royal Bahamas Patrol Force
D. Royal Bahamian Patrol Force

B) Type true or false in the blank spaces provided to answer each statement below.

1) NEMA is responsible for the overall management of natural disasters in The Bahamas. _____

2) During a natural disaster, you only need a gallon of water for one day per person. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3) NEMA works along with Government and Non-Government Agencies such as the Department of Meteorology, the Broadcasting Corporation of The Bahamas, and The Bahamas Red Cross Society to manage natural disasters in The Bahamas. _____

4) Household items such as a battery-powered radio, water, first aid kit, canned goods, flashlights and candles with matches are essential during a natural disaster. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS