In addition, / I hope [that you will become a thrifty person, / not a stingy one]. Thrifty people don't spend money (on unnecessary things). On the other hand, / stingy people hardly (거의-않는(부정)) spend any money at all. [Because they are obsessed with the idea (that (동격) money should never be spent)], // they become puppets (that (주격관대) are manipulated / by money). I want you / to spend money / on (what you really enjoy), (such as watching your favorite movies or going to art exhibitions). (B) And (instead of liking something merely [because it is expensive]), try to develop your own tastes [when it (~에 관해서) comes to precious and beautiful things].

Finally, be glad to share your money (with others). [If you make donations / to people (in need)], // you'll see the truly positive influence [that (목적격관대) money can have].

I hope [you will keep (V1) my advice (in mind) and grow (V2) to be an adult (who (주격관대) uses money wisely)].
