My Favourite Teacher

I enjoy school. I have a small group of really good friends and some great teachers. My favourite teacher is Miss Greenfield, the art teacher, because she makes the class interesting for all of us – even those who don't like art.

Miss Greenfeld is a tall, slim woman in her late twenties. She has wavy brown hair down to her shoulders. Her face is oval-shaped and she has a small nose and big brown eyes. She always wears eye makeup and her eyelashes look really long. Miss Greenfield usually wears jeans and amazing tops in beautiful colours which she makes herself. She always wears long silver earrings and several rings on her fingers. In the summer she wears sandals and in the winter she wears boots.

Lots of people like Miss Greenfield. She is energetic and she smiles a lot. She encourages us to work hard. She's very patient with us and honest about our work without being unkind. She gets cross when students don't make any effort in her class and just chat to each other, which is understandable.

I feel very lucky to have such a great teacher. I want to study art when I leave school and be an art teacher. Miss Greenfield is a great role model.
