WATCH THE VIDEO AND ORGANIZE LUCAS' WORDS TO HIS COUSIN

But, how could we leave our people? How could we not take to the streets? how could we not protest tomorrow may 5th? I can't, man.

And if we have to leave, we have to leave. There's no other way. We have to confront that.

The worst can happen. All for all. A lot of us could die.

And hopefully the spirit will guide us and take care of us so we can survive, and create a new world.

We have to, we have to assume

Because nowadays, right now in Colombia, the fact of being on the streets, of being young and on the streets, is to risk life. We could all die.
