Molly's New Year

My family usually celebrate New Year in England, but this year we're in Scotland. We're staying on the Isle of Arran in a hotel. There's lots to do on the island. We can go walking, go cycling or we can explore the main town and visit the shops.

Today, I'm staying in the hotel with Mum because it's really cold outside. We're sitting next to the fire and Mum is reading a book. I'm putting some holiday photos online. My brother and dad are walking in the mountains. They're very sporty. They're wearing jumpers, hats and boots, so they should be OK!

Tomorrow, we want to go to the Isle of Bute. There are large boats that go there when the weather's good. Or, maybe we can stay at the hotel and swim in the pool. The water is nice and warm!

We are going home in a few days because school starts next week. I don't want to go home.
