

Review

A Complete the text with the correct form of the words in the box.

athlete champion compete fail

Pierre de Coubertin, the man who reinvented the ancient Greek Olympic Games at the end of the 19th century, (1) _____ the inclusion of physical education in French schools. He believed sports taught young people that the important thing was to (2) _____, not to win. Sports act as a school for life, in which we learn to keep our self-control when we (3) _____, and we learn from our (4) _____. Team sports teach us that in order to win, we don't just need to be (5) _____, but also cooperative—no team can keep winning with just one superstar (6) _____ who doesn't play with his or her teammates. That's why (7) _____ skills are not enough to be a true (8) _____.

B Read the tag questions and complete the statements.

1. _____ going to the track and field event this weekend, aren't you?
2. _____ like raw fish, does he?
3. _____ perform live really well as a group, can't they?
4. _____ working on Friday night, is he?
5. _____ make a lot of money selling sneakers, will he?
6. _____ think about studying harder for the exam, shouldn't they?

C Complete each sentence with a word from the box and a relative pronoun.

balance commitment communication leadership speed stamina strength teamwork

1. There's the gymnast _____ was able to _____ on one hand.
2. _____ is a skill _____ involves more than being someone's boss.
3. She is the woman _____ showed great _____ by lifting the car.
4. Athletes _____ can run long distances demonstrate incredible _____.
5. Body language is one form of _____ a team uses when they play.
6. _____ is important for a group of people _____ needs to meet a deadline.
7. It was his _____ to the sport _____ made him a champion.
8. _____ is just one factor _____ is important for winning an 800-meter race.